PREMIERE SERIES

JOIN US THIS HALLOWEEN for BFan's wickedly funny original dance theater adaptation of Washington Irving's classic 1820 tale of superstition and rivalry. Would-be hero Ichabod Crane confronts his desires, fears, and – of course – the Headless Horseman of Sleepy Hollow – all in pursuit of his love, Katrina. Colonial American whimsy fuses with earie electric guitar and violin music. Some viewers may find the headless horseman scene in Act II to be a wee bit scary...or is it all in Ichabod's imagination?

Celebrate the season and the King of Cool! See the magic that made a generation swoon – Scot Bruce meticulously and respectfully recreates the electrifying Elvis in his prime down to the vintage instruments, hip threads and grease in the hair. Bruce's uncanny resemblance – in his sound and the swivel in his hips – has taken him all over the world, on TV and Disneyland on a regular basis. Don't miss getting ALL SHOOK UP at this fun and family friendly holiday show.

Hailing from Tanzania, the ZUZU African Acrobats celebrate the 2,000 year-old Bantu culture of East Africa in every performance. Performing ancient traditions passed on by elders, this troupe delivers incredible acrobatics, energizing African drumming, singing and dancing, and gravity defying stunts while simultaneously displaying the grace, beauty and strength of the African culture. As seen on America's Got Talent!

Seattle Rock Orchestra continues its deep dive into the complete Beatles' discography with a performance of their iconic albums Abbey Road (1969) and Let It Be (1970) which exemplify everything we love the Beatles for: vocal harmonies, lyrical creativity, emotional content and energetic fun. Never performed live during The Beatles' short career, Seattle Rock Orchestra will caringly present these two final studio masterpieces to the audience. Featuring the songs "Come Together", "Here Comes the Sun", "Across the Universe", "Get Back" and many more. This is a program you won't want to miss!
